Burglars Call Tuesday Night On Seven

WORK OF PROFESSIONAL MEN

Believed to Be Same Gang Which Has Operated in Nearby Towns

Burglars visited this city Tuesday night and distributed their attentions over considerable territory. Prof. and Mrs. Oscar Seiling suffered the greatest loss as the marauders obtained a considerable sum of money which Mrs. Seiling had drawn from the bank to do Christmas shopping and many pieces of valuable jewelry.

Prof. Seiling is particularly distressed over the loss of jeweled articles which had been presented him when he played before the royalties of Europe, as he valued them for their significance quite as much as for their intrinsic value. Mrs. Seiling also lost some of her valuable jewels but was not able to state accurately immediately just what pieces were missing as she required time to check those remaining over.

Mrs. Harry Bourne's house, at the corner of Auburn and Grand View was also entered. Here the thieves went systematically to work and turned out every drawer and cupboard. The blinds on the first story were pulled down by them and a most minute search made for valuables, even the workbenches and sewing oaks being emptied of their contents.

Mrs. Bourne and her mother, Mrs. Miller, were sleeping in a screen porch on the second story and were not awakened until the flashlight used by the thieves, was thrown on the glass of the porch door. Mrs. Bourne sprang out of bed and pushed it against the door while she screamed for help.

Mr. Walter Anderson, who lives next door was aroused by her screams and with Mr. H. E. Allen, who has been staying with the Andersons while his family was under quarantine, hurried to the Bourne residence only to hear the back door slam as they entered the front, and then they heard a man running away. It was too dark to see him and they could not overtake him.

Mrs. Bourne lost a valuable collection of old coins and brooch of considerable value. Mrs. Miller lost a valuable brooch and chain which were heirlooms as well as several pieces of jewelry of less value. Some money was taken though Mrs. Bourne was unable to state how much.

E. H. Wood's residence on N. Baldwin was entered and some articles of small value taken and Mrs. E. A. Sherman's house on E. Alegria was also entered but nothing taken. W. I. Manchester's house on North Auburn was also entered but nothing disturbed. Father Woodcutter's residence on Auburn gave evidence of an attempt to enter, but either the thieves were frightened away or they could not get in. E. H. Porter's house on E. Alegria was also visited by them but they were frightened away and decamped leaving some of their tools behind.

Marshall Udell states that he feels quite confident that this was the work of professional crooks, especially as a bag and purse were found in Central Ave. in front of Belohlavek's garage, which had in it the name of a girl in one of the families in Monrovia who were robbed recently and which has been missing since that time.

The following night, Wednesday, while Mr. Dietz was attending the Trustees meeting in the City Hall, a man entered his screen porch and was frightened away by the return of a gentleman who rooms at the Dietz house. This gentleman passed the man as he entered the house but in the darkness supposed it was Mr. Dietz.

Mrs. Dietz gave the alarm and the officers went to the house immediately but could find no clue and late that night, after Mr. Dietz had retired, someone entered the house again and stole his watch. The officers believe it was the same man who was frightened away earlier in the evening.

That same night the Vannier house on S. Hermosa was entered but nothing was taken but some canned goods. An attempt was made to enter S. R. G. Twycross' house on S. Baldwin, but they were frightened away.

Thursday night the Fennel house on W. Carter was entered, the W. H. Butts residence on E. Highland, Mrs. L. Jordan's house on E. Highland, and the Odwark house in the same block. An attempt was made on the residence of E. C. Dickinson on E. Alegria and W. J. Miller on W. Highland.

The officers are working on these cases but are not willing to make any statement for publication at present. However, the marshal advises that people be a little particular about locking their doors, and he urges that he be notified immediately if there is any suspicious circumstance at night. If he is not informed of a robbery or attempted one until the next morning, the trail is quite cold and the chance of apprehending the criminal much lessened.

Attention, Men! Come to Smoker

Monday night, November 28th, at 8:00 o'clock a Smoker for the men of Sierra Madre will be held in the Woman's Club House in connection with the Chamber of Commerce Reorganization campaign. Every man in this city interested in the future welfare of the city should be there.

Good speakers: M. C. Hutchinson of Hollywood also Ben H. Schouboe, organization engineer.

Motion pictures giving the story of Hollywood's recent campaign, pointing out community needs and showing in action the 250 live wires who enrolled 2517 members. Our needs are not the same but we can get good pointers. Nothing solemn about it—a laugh in every foot of film.

Good smokes and a good lunch—community singing and an informal, get-together good time while we talk over some of our community problems.

No memberships solicited, no pledge asked, no money expected. Not a membership will be solicited in this campaign until December 6th. You need not bring your pocket book—bring yourself and an interest in the city you live in.

Firemen's Club Nearing Goal

Thirty-two New Members Accepted Christmas Tree Plans Settled

At the meeting of the Firemen's Club which was held Tuesday evening at the City Hall, the reports on their dinner and dance given on the ninth of this month showed the net proceeds to be $53.60. This money was added to the Christmas Tree fund which now amounts to $117.85.

Votes of thanks were given Mr. F. Monroe Smith for decorating the Club House for the dinner and dance and also to F. D. Sible and D. J. Sullivan for their assistance in cooking the meat and baking the rolls.

Thirty-two new applications for membership were accepted bringing the number of members up to one hundred and eighty-two. It is believed that by the next meeting, the two hundred mark will be reached.

The plans for the Christmas Eve Festival at the Club House were discussed and the following committees appointed: Tree, G. I. Farman, chairman, Frank Hildebrandt, Art Udell, L. C. Brooks and Lee Hibbs; Baskets, J. N. Hawks, chairman, Chas. E. Askeew, M. D. Welscher, J. J. Bergien, Henry J. Mitchell and W. J. Ropp; Presents, A. E. Pettitt, chairman, Woodson Jones, Wm. Olsen, F. L. Merrill, Leigh Pruden, and D. Shaffer; Flowers, F. M. Smith, chairman, W. W. Felgate, J. C. Kassner, W. D. Richards, Chester Bryant and C. M. Kariofo.

This Christmas Eve party is primarily intended to bring some cheer and happiness to those who are strangers in our midst and especially those who may be saddened at this time by ill health. The tree is for the purpose of receiving gifts which will be distributed on Christmas Day by the Firemen where it is felt they will bring the Christmas spirit of goodwill to those whose day might otherwise not be a very bright one.

The club building is making rapid progress. The concrete foundations are practically complete and the floor joists and sub floors will be laid in another week. At the next meeting it will be definitely decided whether to continue the work by day labor or to let it on contract. There are good reasons for following either course and the club must determine shortly which method has the greater advantages.

The girls of the Order of St. Catherine will meet at the residence of Mrs. Hall Perry, 118 E. Laurel Ave., on Tuesday evening.

There is considerable business in connection with the table at the recent bazaar to be transacted and the President, Mrs. Roland Adams urges all members to make a special effort to attend.

GIRLS CLUB WILL MEET

The girls of the U. N. U. Club of the Congregational Church will hold a Cooked Food Sale Saturday, tomorrow, at Welscher's Grocer Store. All sorts of home cooked goodies will be on sale.

Annual Roll Call Nov. 11-24, 1921

Have You Proved You Have a Heart and a Dollar, or Five or Ten?

The Red Cross Roll Call did not close last night but will be continued until Saturday night. Owing to the fact that many of the workers were engaged in the Bazaar last week, the chairman decided not to start the teams out soliciting until Saturday morning and then, in one grand whirlwind campaign of one day, finish up the drive. The headquarters will be kept open and it is hoped many more will come in and subscribe voluntarily.

So far only about fifty per cent of the membership quota has been obtained. This is doing well considering there has been no soliciting but it is not doing well enough. Sierra Madre has until tomorrow night to make good and keep up the record she has always held for Red Cross work.

At the recent intercounty conference in Pasadena, after chairman Mitchell had reported on the work of this chapter, Mr. George Filmer, Pacific Division Manager, remarked that Sierra Madre sounded like a good place to live and work. In 1916 when Mabel Boardman offered a silver cup to the city in the United States which showed the greatest per capita increase in membership, Sierra Madre won over all the other cities in the country.

This is a record to be proud of and the members of the Roll Call committee are more than anxious that there shall be no falling off in the results this year. There will be no falling off, providing each citizen takes interest enough to bring or send in the dollar which is all that is needed for a membership.

In the list published last week, through an oversight, some names were omitted but they have been added to this week's list. The very youngest member in the chapter to date is Miss Virginia Romney Flaherty, aged one month.

Below is the complete list of sustaining and contributing members up to Tuesday night and the annual members who have subscribed since last week.

Charley Nomura came into headquarters with twenty-five subscriptions from his countrymen living in Sierra Madre. The Japanese of this city show a hundred per cent membership in the Red Cross and set a pace the Americans will have to go some to equal by Saturday night.

To the Citizens of Sierra Madre

As members of the campaign executive committee appointed by the Board of Directors in connection with the Sierra Madre Chamber of Commerce reorganization campaign, we wish to urge upon every public spirited citizen of Sierra Madre at this time the necessity of cooperating to the fullest extent in making this reorganization movement a success.

We have accepted the positions on the executive committee because we feel that by lending our support to this movement we can discharge at least a part of our obligation to the community. We feel it an honor, indeed, to assist any movement that has for its object the further and broader development of Sierra Madre.

It is our duty to build for tomorrow. By thinking and doing today we are fulfilling that duty. We urge every man and woman interested in the welfare of Sierra Madre and the continued success of the Chamber of Commerce to align himself or herself with this cause and cooperate with us.

The Chamber of Commerce has achieved much for Sierra Madre but it can achieve more if provided with a more representative membership and more adequate income. It must do more if it is to keep pace with the strides of progress of other Southern California cities. By our united cooperation it can and will do more.

All Day Bazaar Next Friday

The Congregational Church Bazaar under the auspices of the Ladies Aid Society of that church, will open to the public at 10:00 A. M. next Friday morning, December 2nd, in the Woman's Club House. It isn't every town in the country that can put on two big church bazaars within two weeks and make great successes of them, but it is an annual habit in Sierra Madre and the ladies of the Congregational Church who have been working faithfully for weeks, preparing articles for sale, are confident this is to be the most successful Bazaar they have yet held.

The fancy work booth, which will have all sorts of dainty articles to entice the Christmas shopper, will be under the charge of Mrs. Charles A. Cover who, with her assistants is planning to sell every article on the table before the Bazaar closes that night. Mrs. C. B. Reas will display any and every kind of an apron to fit any and every kind of a figure. The motto of that booth will be, "Let no apronless woman escape."

The Unedus Club has the Candy Booth and any one acquainted with the efficient young ladies who comprise that club knows that the candy will develop a lively crop of Oliver Twists, all asking for more.

Mrs. Howard Hill will preside over the cooked food table and that simple statement conveys volumes to the initiated. There are one or two women in this town who are nothing less than geniuses when it comes to running that sort of thing and the eats on that table will be enough to make a dyspeptic forget all his doctor ever said.

Mrs. J. C. Beers will have the "White Elephant" booth which is conducted on the principle that what is one man's poison is another man's meat—in other words that what is of no use to one may be the very thing somebody else is looking for. Big bargains will be found at that table.

The children's corner will be managed by Mrs. James Farndale and the kiddies will find plenty of attractive things to keep them occupied, while Miss Annie Greene will have the Literature Department where religious books will be on sale and subscriptions to religious magazines will be taken. It was suggested that as many of the church people missed the church notices and news because they did not read this great weekly, it might be well to take subscriptions for the Sierra Madre News also at this booth.

Mrs. W. E. Walker will serve tea and icecream and cake in the afternoon. In recognition of the fact that some people are hungry any old time icecream cones will be on sale all day. At 5:30 a cafeteria dinner will be served and the following good things will be ready to fill up that aching void: leg of lamb, roast pork and apple sauce, mashed potatoes and gravy, peas and carrots, squash, cottage cheese, combination salad, hot rolls, whole wheat and white bread and butter, apple, pumpkin and lemon pies, coffee.

At 8:15 a wonderfully fine musical program will be given. Mr. Oscar Rashbach, pianist and composer, who

Campaign For Reorganization Under Way

MAKES GOOD START

Meeting Tonight Will Outline Program of Work—Smoker Monday

The Chamber of Commerce Reorganization Campaign started with a rush Monday, when Mr. Ben H. Schouboe, organization expert of the firm of Stevenson and Schouboe, arrived and set the wheels in motion.

Through the courtesy of Milton Steinberger, the showroom of the Sierra Madre Garage was turned over to the committee for headquarters and in a few hours a stenographer was busily engaged on the necessary clerical work. The telephone number is Blue 68. Tuesday afternoon the Directors of the Chamber held a special meeting and selected an Executive Committee to handle the campaign. The Directors as a body resigned, this action to take effect at the close of the campaign, thus leaving the way clear for the new members to have a voice in the selection of the new directors who will carry on the year's work.

Mayor Mitchell heads this committee as chairman, with H. E. Allen as campaign treasurer and Mrs. Milton Steinberger, George Oswald and W. D. Richards completing a group which it would be hard to beat for executive ability. Messrs. Richards and Oswald will be the division leaders in the campaign and will select six captains each who will head the teams.

General Committee Selected

Wednesday the Executive Committee met and appointed a General Campaign Committee, representing as fully as possible the different interests in this community. Those who have been asked to serve on this committee and give the benefit of their knowledge of community need are Dr. L. N. Alcorn, Roland Adams, A. P. Bradford, J. J. Bergien, J. Belohlavek, Harry Bleecker, C. M. Cooper, G. I. Farman, W. W. Felgate, Fred Griebnow, A. T. Gay, Miss Thomasella Graham, Mrs. Holt Gregory, Rudolph Hartman, R. B. Hosford, Joseph Hooker, J. N. Hawks, Frank Hildebrandt, Charles Hastings, Woodson Jones, George A. Jones, J. W. Jameson, J. W. Krauter, Mrs. O. L. Lockhart, W. J. Lawless, George Morgridge, Dr. F. P. Miller, George Norris, E. C. Newton, A. E. Pettitt, Carl Perier, F. G. Scalzo, J. F. Sadler, J. W. Strickland, D. J. Sullivan, Otto Seng, J. W. Stevenson, Dean Shaw, J. D. Sparks, Earl Topping, W. E. Walker, T. M. Webster, M. D. Welscher, Father Woodcutter.

Tonight at 7:30 this committee will meet in the City Hall and at that time will decide on the scope of the activities of the reorganized Chamber and formulate a tentative program of work.

Citizens Choose Objectives

This plan is followed that the program of work selected for the Chamber for the ensuing year shall be representative of the thoughts and needs of every part of the community. At this meeting it will be generally determined what the needs of the community are, which are necessities and which are desiderabilia, which projects are practical and possible of accomplishment now, which must be postponed. This program can be added to or altered later on, but it is necessary to have some expression from the citizens themselves as to what they think their Chamber of Commerce should be and do.

The idea back of this reorganized body as democratic as possible and to give every citizen a chance to voice his or her ideas as to what is needed to make this city the best in Southern California in every practical way. For that reason no attention is being paid to the present membership roll of the Chamber in appointing committees and asking for cooperation. This is to be a Sierra Madre Campaign and every citizen is entitled to a share in it.

At the public meetings opportunity will be given those who have new ideas to present them for consideration. The first of these meetings will be a smoker for the men at the Club House next Monday night. At this smoker, Mr. Hawks, chairman of that committee, will preside while Mr. Mitchell will be the chairman of the evening program. Mr. M. C. Hutchinson of Hollywood will be the principal speaker of the evening. Mr. Hutchinson has the reputation of being a wonderfully entertaining, eloquent speaker and he can be counted on to hold the close attention of his audience.

Mr. Schouboe, the campaign manager, will explain some of the reasons why Sierra Madre needs this reorganization and a movie reel of about twenty minutes duration will tell the story of what Hollywood needed and the campaign which was put on to meet those needs. One of the movie marnates of Hollywood became so interested in the campaign there that he had this reel made as a part of the publicity work of the campaign and he has kindly consented to have it shown here.

While some of Hollywood's problems may differ from those of this city, Mr. Schouboe states that there are similar problems in all cities and he feels sure that the Sierra Madre men will find much that is applicable to this city in the film. Also it has many comic incidents, so no one need be afraid of being bored.

At 8:15 a wonderfully fine musical program will be given. Mr. Oscar Rashbach, pianist and composer, who

WOMAN'S CLUB NEWS

By Press Chairman, Mrs. Besse Palmer Rhodes.

At the next regular meeting of the club, which will occur on Monday, November 28, Mrs. E. K. Foster, President of the Juvenile Protection Association, will be the speaker, and her subject, "Our Children" is one which appeals to the mother heart of each and every woman in the club. The program chairman, Mrs. Frank Hart is proud indeed, to be able to draw on the time and intellectuality of a woman of such wide experience and sterling character, and her remarks, based on her actual experiences, can not fail to be most vital. All members are urged to be present.

Drama Section

Mrs. Frank Wright, chairman of the drama section of the Club, would like to meet with those desirous of joining the section, at the club house, on Monday, November 28, at one o'clock.

Dance

Remember the Thanksgiving dance at the Club House, tonight, Friday. Aside from the always attractive feature of the exhibition dancers, there will be a number of spot dances, for which prizes will be given. Dancing will be from 8:30 to 12:00, with music furnished by the Kidas Orchestra.

Dancing Class

Those attending Madame Dowdell's dancing class a few weeks ago, are notified that the second lesson will be given on Saturday night, November 26, at the club house. Any persons desirous of taking a few lessons, but not wishing the entire course may receive instruction by paying for the single lesson.

AVOCADO ACREAGE TREBLED

The new acreage now planted to avocados an alligator nears in California represents an increase of over 285 per cent, according to H. M. Butterfield of the University of California. These trees in a few years, will be producing fruit valued at a quarter of a million dollars.

The fruit is increasing rapidly in popularity because it is not only excellent as a salad but is also a substantial food.

Persons interested in avocados will be glad to learn that the State College of Agriculture is now offering a correspondence course on avocados. Circular 113 describing the correspondence courses will be sent free on request.

GLAD TO GET BACK

Mr. Frank E. Cox, of the A. N. Adams real estate firm, has returned to this city after a seven weeks trip to Pittsburgh and his old home, Wheeling, West Va. Mr. Cox felt he needed a complete rest and change of scene following the strain of his wife's long illness and the recent death and he went back to his former haunts for it.

He says that he had a most satisfactory trip in every way, the weather was perfect, regular California weather, and his old friends couldn't do enough for him to make his visit pleasant, but he says he was so glad to get back, so very glad to get back to Southern California.

He reports that in that section of the country business conditions are slowly improving and that during his stay, plants reopened and other increasing their hours and the outlook generally is much brighter than a few months ago.

When the reporter asked him what made him think California so wonderful when he got back to it, he immediately answered, "It is so clean! I had forgotten how grimy and dirty it was back there. This wonderful, clean, clean air! You can say I am mighty glad to be back."

Mrs. Munson at Rest After Long Illness

Mrs. Mabel Harrington Munson, wife of William A. Munson, passed away after a long illness at her late residence, 26 W. Alegria St., on Tuesday.

Mrs. Munson was a native of Oak Park, Illinois and had lived there until she and her husband came to California about four and a half years ago. They came to Sierra Madre almost immediately and for a time was staying at Mrs. Ferry's on South Baldwin, until they moved to the home on Alegria.

Owing to the handicap of delicate health, Mrs. Munson was unable to take any active part in the social life of this city but she made innumerable friends, everyone who met her being attracted by her lovable nature and her courageous endurance of suffering.

The funeral services will be held at her old home in Oak Park, Mr. Munson leaving shortly with the body to carry out his wife's wish to be taken to her early home.

NOTED BACTERIOLOGIST IS ENTERTAINED IN CITY

Dr. G. W. Groth of this city has recently been entertaining Dr. Philip Rathjen of Pasadena, a distinguished bacteriologist who has received considerable notice in the Los Angeles and Pasadena papers lately in connection with his work in isolating and classifying the germ of pernicious anemia.

Dr. Rathjen, who has devoted thirty years to bacteriological research, has been working on the anemia germ for over two years and his discovery has received recognition from the Smithsonian Institute at Washington of which he has been made a member. He succeeded in immunizing goats and from them developed a serum which he claims has anti-toxic value in the treatment of pernicious anemia.

Dr. Groth has been closely connected with Dr. Rathjen and the latter has visited this city several times and expresses himself as so delighted with it that he is seriously considering the possibility of making it his future home. Dr. Groth is using all the persuasive arguments at his command to induce his distinguished friend to move here and speaks as though he expected to succeed.

Sierra Madre Uppermost Get Behind the Campaign

The expansion and reorganization campaign which was started this week by the Chamber of Commerce gives every promise of awakening this town to civic responsibility and an idea of community service beyond anything which has been previously attempted.

Many of our citizens have realized for a long time that the Chamber of Commerce was not doing all for this town that such a body should do because it was hampered by insufficient support from both the financial and personal interest standpoints.

Many other citizens have not yet awakened to the fact that chamber of commerce work today is in every way different from what it was ten or fifteen years ago, especially in the west. The eastern states awoke to the possibilities of a properly organized Chamber much sooner than the west, although the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce stands out a bright and shining example of what can be done for a community and a locality by such an organization with brains and money behind it. An article which appeared in the World's Work a few months ago entitled "What Kind of a Pittsburgh is Los Angeles?" gave the credit for a large percentage of the growth and prosperity of Los Angeles to the Chamber of Commerce with Frank Wiggins directing it and a small body of farsighted citizens standing behind him with personal effort and money.

What Los Angeles did can be done by Sierra Madre proportionately. Our city comprises but four square miles of territory, but they stand at the head of the list of desirable square miles when it comes to locations for homes. This city has no rival in Southern California as a desirable home site from most angles and no city has a more exquisitely beautiful setting.

The accomplishment of the many much needed improvements in this city depends very largely upon the Chamber of Commerce. Concerted community effort is needed to make a success of any public project and the Chamber is the logical medium for the expression of this effort.

The modern, up-to-date Chamber of Commerce is run in much the same way that a successful business is run. It has a definite program of work, an executive to keep the work under way and funds and equipment to make accomplishment possible.

The live, hustling, growing towns are the towns with live energetic Chambers of Commerce. The old idea that the chief function of such a body was to distribute some advertising matter and answer letters of inquiry was placed in the discard some years since. In the modern Chamber innumerable projects for civic betterment are undertaken and carried to a successful conclusion.

In putting on this campaign, Sierra Madre will profit by the experience of other cities which have gone through this phase. In selecting a program of work and carrying it to a successful conclusion, we will have the benefit of the methods which have proved satisfactory in other cities with similar needs.

This campaign will result in good for everyone in our city, renter and property owner as well as business man. The measure of that good is limited only by the support given this movement by the citizens. Unified, cooperative effort is the secret of success.

"Sierra Madre Uppermost!" That is the slogan chosen for the campaign and it should be the determination of each one of us that we will make it come true. Sierra Madre is uppermost in physical location—everybody pitch in now and put our city uppermost in everything that goes to make a beautiful, clean, well ordered community with the necessary public buildings and improvements and a sane, broadminded direction of its continuing growth.

"Sierra Madre Uppermost!" The Chamber of Commerce is the instrument through which this can be brought about. Get behind the campaign, everybody, and have your share in the inevitable success.

Your Last Chance to Help Put Your City Over The Top

In the news columns will be found the announcement that those in charge of the Red Cross Roll Call in this city have decided to extend the time two days and not close the headquarters until Saturday night.

The teams did not start soliciting the first of the week as originally planned but on Friday morning, so today and tomorrow will be devoted to rounding up all those who have not yet voluntarily joined.

Sierra Madre simply must not fall down on her quota, we must have nine hundred members by Saturday night without fail. By rights we should have twice that many, but nine hundred we must have or else fall back from the proud position this city has held as a leader in Red Cross work since 1914.

And aside from all question of civic pride, how can anybody, who has a dollar that can be spared, justify not joining this wonderful organization for humanitarian service.

To what better use can one dollar or five dollars or ten dollars be put than working for the Red Cross? Ten millions were spent by this body last year in helping the ex-service men alone, supplementing the government aid and in many instances keeping the disabled soldier from suffering and starvation till red tape in Washington was unwound.

There is no real excuse for not joining the Red Cross, no excuse that will hold water except absolute poverty. No man who smokes can with a clear conscience say he can't afford to join—a very small part of the money he burns up will pay his membership. No woman who buys theater tickets or sodas or candy can say she can't afford a dollar for the Red Cross.

We can't quite believe that there are many in this city of ours who would refuse if they really stopped to think what the work means. They have a general feeling that the war is over and the need isn't pressing and they don't bother to give the dollar.

The work of the Red Cross of Peace is no less important than was the war time work. There is the aftermath of war—the disabled soldiers. There is the relief work in time of great catastrophes fire, flood and pestilence. There is the work among the children of our own land, the undernourished, physically handicapped children. There is the anti-tuberculosis work which is being carried on all over the country. There is the local relief work.

Each division of the work has its own appeal. Surely in the list there is some activity which each one of us would wish to help along. Bring or send in your dollar without delay. This city doesn't know how to fall down on anything that is undertaken here—and when the sun sets tomorrow night, those nine hundred members must be registered.

If you have already joined, round up those in your family or neighborhood who have neglected to do so and bring in their subscriptions. Do not wait to be asked to solicit—get the inspiration and do it anyhow.

Well, the turkey and pumpkin pie came up to expectations.

NOTE: Items for this column should be in the hands of the reporter not later than Tuesday evening to insure insertion and avoid inaccuracies. Items turned in after ten-thirty Wednesday morning will not appear in the current week's issue. Phone Green 79.

Mrs. Lenna Seidel of Los Angeles was the guest of her daughter, Mrs. L. C. Brooks of East Central Avenue over Sunday.

Pete Tucker and Gale Williams went to Big Bear for the last week end intending to do great execution among the ducks but came back without so much as feather.

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Klemme and daughter, Miss Ruth, of Belmond, Iowa, have recently arrived to spend the winter months in their home on North Canyon Ave.

Prof. and Mrs. John Marquardt have moved to Glendale and Prof. Marquardt has given up his work as director of the community orchestra owing to this change.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Humphries of Los Angeles were dinner guests on Saturday of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Humphries of West Carter Avenue.

Mrs. A. L. Sorter of Santa Ana and her daughter, Margaret, were dinner guests on Thanksgiving day of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Farman on E. Highland Avenue.

Miss Celia Cameron, niece of Mrs. H. E. Long of E. Central Avenue, who has been visiting here since March, leaves Monday for her home in Charleston, West Va. On the way she will stop for visits at Ft. Worth Texas and Columbus, Ohio.

Mrs. F. J. Urban and Miss Donna Harter entertained with a bridge party at their new home on Michigan Avenue, Pasadena, on Monday. Among the Sierra Madre guests were Mesdames W. R. Morgan, E. C. Newton, W. J. Lawless, F. P. Sperry and J. Milton Steinberger.

MAKING A LAWN IN SIERRA MADRE

By Jessie Ward

When nature is covering all the vacant lots and hillsides with a beautiful carpet of green, it is time that we should be thinking of helping her by covering up the bare spots in our own property.

No landscape garden is complete without a lawn even though it is a small one.

The most handsome lawn is the one made of blue grass; the next best is the one made of bluegrass and clover mixed; the third is one made of Lippia Repens which is not a grass at all, but a close fitting, trailing plant that spreads over the ground and resembles a grass lawn.

Making a good lawn in Sierra Madre is somewhat of a problem because of the nature of our soil which is so porous it does not retain the moisture sufficiently at the surface. The shallow roots of the lawn grass seed dry up unless water is applied very frequently. This condition of the soil can be remedied by building it up with humus in the way of stable manure or other rotted vegetable matter. This humus is food for plant life and will hold moisture in the soil as well.

Spread about three or four inches of stable fertilizer over the surface of the soil, spade and mix well to a depth of one foot. Rake out the stones, grade off smoothly and sprinkle every day but do not sow the seed yet. You will soon have a crop of weeds, oats and barley. When you think that all of the weed seeds have germinated, turn the weeds under and rake over again and sprinkle as before. You will get another light crop of weeds, but after these have been spaded under you can safely sow the grass seed.

If your soil happens to be of a very good quality before you start to prepare for the lawn, perhaps all it will need after it has been spaded up and graded will be a dressing of commercial fertilizer. As the commercial fertilizer is free from weed seeds the grass seed can be planted at once.

In sowing seed choose a still day so that the delicate seed can be distributed over the ground evenly. Go over the surface to be sowed, two or three times scattering the seeds as evenly as possible, using one pound of seed to every two-hundred square feet, 10x20, or for the clover and blue grass lawn use one pound for every two-hundred and fifty square feet, 16x16, using one-third clover seed and two-thirds blue grass and sowing each separately.

After the seed has been sown, the surface should be lightly raked over so that the seed will be partially covered with earth. Then, to hold the moisture, a very thin coat of sawdust can be scattered over the whole surface. Sprinkling should be done twice a day, or more on hot days and it must be done lightly or the seed will be washed away in spots. Never allow the surface to dry while the seed is germinating or the lawn will be lost.

The soil for the Lippia lawn is prepared in the same way as the grass lawn. The Lippia is started by planting young rooted divisions about one foot apart. These, if well watered will soon cover the ground and make a dense, close fitting mat resembling Dr. and Mrs. George Cornell and Mrs. W. W. Collins of Pasadena were among the former residents of this place who attended the Episcopal Bazaar last Thursday, staying for the dinner and play. The Bazaar would not seem natural without Dr. Cornell's genial presence. Familiar faces seen on Friday were those of Mrs. M. Binford of Los Angeles, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Baugh and Mr. and Mrs. Henderson Childs of Pasadena.

Mr. and Mrs. George Oswald of E. Central Avenue, had Mr. and Mrs. Charles Klunk and daughter Ruth as dinner guests on Thanksgiving day. Mrs. H. Oswald of San Francisco and her daughter, Bessie, was a visitor at the George Oswald home last week, attending the Bazaar and spending one day sightseeing by auto in Pasadena and vicinity.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Forsyth of Kansas City, who have been house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Young of North Adams St. for the past three weeks, have left for Laguna. The Forsyths are portrait painters and have a large studio in Kansas City, coming to California, as they supposed for a visit only. However they became so enamored of this country, that they decided to remain and are opening a studio at Laguna Beach.

Mrs. J. Milton Steinberger and Mrs. Frank Wright attended a woman's meeting in the Union League Club Auditorium on Tuesday which was called to outline plans for a campaign to obtain passage by the next legislature measures authorizing issuance of bonds to the extent of $10,000,000 for extending farm and home aid to veterans. The principal speakers were Gov. Stephens and Lieut. Buron Fitts of the American Legion.

a lawn. It will grow in sandier, dryer soils than grass and will need no mowing. It can stand a great deal of drought but to have it green and dense it should be watered well.

Other substitutes for the grass lawn are: English Ivy, Verbenas, Gazanias, Trailing Lantanas, Ivy Geraniums, Mesembryanthemum, Ornamental Strawberries, Lopezia and Vinca. These plants are especially good for parkings and banks.

In planting shrubbery about and in lawns it is good landscaping to keep them to the sides, leaving the centre of the lawn open, unless perhaps in the formal garden, where a pool or flower bed is sometimes used. It is well to have shrubbery planted in the corners of the lawn where two walks meet at angles or where a walk turns sharply.

The area of the lawn need not be so large if plenty of low shrubbery is planted at the sides of the yard. The shrubbery will soften the lines of the lawn and the lawn will set off the shrubbery.

According to Treasury Department figures, every man, woman and child in the country has $250.00 saved. Strange that our banker never mentioned it to us.—St. Paul Pioneer Press.

Our City 33 Years Ago

The following items are from the Sierra Madre Vista of July 7th, 1888. The advice which was given to vacant lot owners in that issue is just as good today and we pass it on with the respectful suggestion that some of our present property owners take it to heart.

Mrs. R. E. Ross has returned home, accompanied by Miss Denton, an accomplished school teacher of Los Angeles.

Mrs. C. W. McCabe, who has been on a visit to her relatives in Denver, returned last Saturday. Denver is a fine place to live at this season, but Mrs. McCabe likes Sierra Madre so much better that she shortened her visit to get back to it.

Mr. W. Kemp and wife, the father and mother of Mrs. W. D. Osgood, together with their daughter and son Miss Katie and Master Arthur, have arrived and are looking around with a view of making this their future home. Another daughter, the wife of Mr. C. Crouch with Hart & Norris, accompanied them. They are all from Cleveland, Ohio, and will be a welcome acquisition to our population.

Rev. E. P. Abbott has purchased the cottage in which he lives. Mr. Abbott likes Sierra Madre and Sierra Madre likes Mr. Abbott; and we trust this investment in real estate will prove but another link in the chain which shall anchor him in our lovely foothill town.

Miss Rose A. Everett, the popular principal of our public school the past term, has returned to her home in Santa Barbara. The patrons of the public school regret the necessity which will deprive the school of her services in the future.

If some of our capitalists who have lots for sale would build a few cottages on some of them, they would find it a profitable investment. It is often the case that a new-comer would prefer to buy an improved lot rather than wait to build. Then we always have a demand for more houses in the winter season than we have, thereby losing many settlers whose temporary residence would be made permanent after they found what a perpetual joy it is to live in such a place as Sierra Madre. They never leave here if they can in any way manage to stay.

Prof. Dickinson, of the University of Southern California, informs us that Prof. Pickering, of Harvard University, is to soon visit Wilson's Peak taking a telescope with an eight inch object glass, to make a thorough test of the atmospheric conditions there, and to report as to the adaptability of this location for the site of an observatory. A son of Alvin Clark, who assisted his father in making the great lens for the Lick Observatory, has expressed his willingness to undertake the work of making a greater telescope than has yet been constructed, for this observatory, in case it is determined to build it. The report of Prof. Pickering, soon to be made, will probably have a deciding effect as to whether this project shall go ahead, especially if it is favorable.

It is very encouraging the way the work is being pushed along on our new water system. Messrs. Hosmer, Cook and Dickson are directly in charge, fully authorized to act, and they are fairly making things "hum." The trench from the divide to the new reservoir has been opened, every carpenter in town has been put to work on the trestles, the iron pipe has been purchased and is on the ground, and it is expected that the water will be in the reservoir by next Wednesday; and the twenty-three hundred feet of new pipe, connecting with the old system at the west end of the tract, will be in place by Saturday. This is good news indeed, for now our abundance of water will be under control, and the difficulties of proper distribution, so annoying in the past, will be no longer felt.

IS OUTLOOK PLEASANT?

Is the outlook from your kitchen windows pleasant? If not, can you improve it? Cleaning up the back yard, will often help, and a hedge or a trellis of vines can sometimes be used to screen undesirable features. Also, trim walks of concrete or some other permanent material, and well-seeded lawn about the kitchen door keeps much dust and mud from being carried indoors, the United States Department of Agriculture suggests.

EXTRA PROFITS FOR THE RANCHERS FROM STUDY OF MODERN METHODS

California ranchers, with difficult problems accomplish wonders and add profits by studying the conditions of their own districts in a practical manner. Following the State Fair at Sacramento, a number of the leading ranching communities, realizing that they have individual problems which they must solve for themselves, have formed community field gatherings where the best tillage methods for that particular locality have been studied and decided upon. To assist them at these field gatherings, they have invited some of the leading tractor and implement dealers of Los Angeles firms who maintain service departments and firms whose tractors and implements have been specially constructed to meet California conditions.

Such a meeting will be held at Lamanda Park, Friday, December 2nd, by the ranchers of that vicinity; Bradbury Estate, corner of Huntington drive and San Gabriel Blvd., and if it is successful, as similar meetings have been in the northern part of the state during the past 60 days, every rancher and orchardist in the community will be benefited. A group of Los Angeles dealers, consisting of the Holt Mfg. Co., Dixon & Griswold Co., and the Killefer Mfg. Co., will assist at this field meet and lend what assistance they can to the ranchers of this section. In the interest of the fruit growers the Dixon & Griswold Co. will bring their La Crosse orchard disc and mold board plows, which were designed in California especially for California orchardists. These La Crosse Orchard Plows are the ideas of prominent California growers and were worked out by a designer having years of experience with the oldest disc plow manufacturer in the United States.

The Killefer Mfg. Co. will have on hand their famous deep tillage tools for sub-soiling. They will show the practical operation of their sub-soilers cultivators and disc harrows. These will be a revelation to many of the ranchers of this district.

One of the most interesting features of the above meeting, is the fact that both the Killefer Mfg. Co.'s tools and those of the Dixon & Griswold Co., will be operated during a 6-hour field meet, from 10 A. M. to 4 P. M., by the new small model of the Holt Caterpillar Tractors. This T-35 Caterpillar Tractor was seen for the first time at the State Fair held this past September. This will be the first opportunity for the many ranchers and orchardists to see this wonderful new model T-35 Caterpillar in action.

It will be interesting to many to know that the H. G. Pendell Co. of Los Angeles, will transport the tractor and implements in a Denby Truck and two trailers.

Two New Homes Add to Growth of City

P. W. Madsen, president of the Western Loan and Building Company, was in town last week to pass upon some applications for loans which had been made by local people. He approved some loans and as a consequence construction on two homes will be started immediately.

These are the first results of the establishment of a branch of this building and loan company here within the past few weeks.

Bethany Church Debt Completely Wiped Out

At the Sunday services at Bethany Church, the pastor, the Rev. W. H. Rawlings announced that the last thousand dollars needed for the completion of the temple building is a hand and that now the only sum lacking is for the finishing of the Sunday school rotunda.

Dr. Rawlings voiced the gratitude of the congregation that they would be able to hold their consecration service on the first of January without any debt on the building.

ALL DAY BAZAAR FRIDAY

has recently returned to Sierra Madre after five years absence, has arranged two groups of piano numbers, while Madame Grace Wood Jess, accompanied by Charles T. Ferry, will give a program of visualized folk songs.
The first portion of her program will be devoted to the Kentucky Mountain and Plantation songs and the costume worn by Madame Jess is one which was worn by Mrs. Lincoln while she was mistress of the White House. During the second part a French peasant costume will be worn.
Mr. Ferry will be remembered by those who were so fortunate as to hear his playing for a Woman's Club program within the year.
The reserved seats for this evening entertainment are now on sale at Hartman's Drug Store and the wise ones advise making reservations without much delay.

SURPRISE SUPPER WINDS UP RECENT PLAY

When the curtain went down on the third act of "It Pays to Advertise" at the Woman's Club House on Saturday night, the amateur cast had the satisfaction of knowing that they had presented in most creditable fashion a play which would have taxed the abilities of many professional companies.

Mr. Louis Dietz, whose interpretation of the part of the wrathful collector for an advertising firm injected plenty of ginger into the scene in which he appeared, with a few happy words of appreciation of her efforts, presented Mrs. Probst, the director, with a beautiful bouquet on behalf of the cast.

Mr. and Mrs. Rhodes then gave a delightful surprise by inviting them to a delicious supper which was prepared in the dining room. With the strain of the performances over, everybody was in a mood to enjoy the festivity to the utmost and it was a thoroughly jolly affair.

The music rendered by the "Big Four" Saturday night was enthusiastically applauded and the young musicians have reason to be proud of their appearance.

The Woman's Guild, through its president, Miss Lydia Webster, wishes to express its appreciation of the help that was so generously given and which contributed so largely to the success of the Bazaar. Miss Webster says that she feels particularly grateful to those who served behind the scenes in the different departments and without whose help the affair could not have been given, though they received none of the public applause.

The bazaar was very successful from a financial standpoint but no definite sum can be named as yet as there are still some accounts to be settled.

CAMPAIGN UNDER WAY

There will be community singing, good smokes and a lunch. This will not be a formal meeting at all, Mr. Schouboe laying emphasis on the point that it is to be an opportunity for the men to find out what a properly conducted and supported Chamber of Commerce can do for them as individuals and as part of the community and also a chance for them to unburden themselves of whatever thoughts they may have as to how things here can be bettered and how it should be done.

On the following Monday night, December 5th, it is planned to have a community dinner for both men and women at the Club House. The speakers for this dinner will be announced later but it is hoped to have President Weaver of the L. A. Chamber of Commerce and Mr. Chas. F. Stearns, Vice-president of the First National Bank of Los Angeles.

No Soliciting At Meeting

Mr. Schouboe is very anxious that it should be plainly understood that there will be no soliciting of members ships or money at any of the meetings. The enrolling of members will be done by the teams which go out for three days following the dinner. No one need stay away from the meetings because of a desire to avoid the embarrassment of being solicited when not prepared to join.

These meetings are not to raise money but to show the value of and the need for a properly organized and functioning Chamber of Commerce. Mr. Schouboe states that if the campaign should close with the money raised and not the proper amount of interest aroused in the work of the Chamber, he would consider that he had woefully failed. A sufficient fund to carry on the work of the Chamber is no more a necessity than the personal service—one is sterile without the other.

At the meeting of the executive committee on Wednesday the plans for the campaign were wholeheartedly endorsed and it is certain that the meeting tonight will result in increased enthusiasm for the project on the part of every one attending.
